About Ismail National Mahila Post Graduate College

Ismail National Mahila (PG) College in Meerut was founded by the famous writer, philosopher and educationist Mohd. Ismail 'Meerathi' in 1909 as a primary school. It is named after its founder. Ismail Merathi is a famous Urdu Shayar, Ghazal and Nazam Writer of all times from Meerut, India. His strong belief in women empowerment and education in the time when Muslim women's education was not supported. His belief and hard work lead to the opening of this school.

In 1940, it was upgraded to High School and in 1952 upto Intermediate. In 1962, the college gained the status of a degree college and got affiliated to Agra University. In 1984, it became a Post Graduate College with the affiliation to C.C.S. University, Meerut.

About the Conference

Welcome to the Conference on "Changing nature of family marriage and kinship in 21st century," hosted by Ismail National Mahila PG College in partnership with the esteemed Indian Sociological Society. This groundbreaking event promises to be a thought-provoking exploration of the dynamic shifts in family dynamics, marriage practices, and kinship bonds in the contemporary world.

In a rapidly changing global landscape, the dynamics of family, marriage, and kinship have evolved significantly. New challenges and opportunities arise as societies adapt to modern trends, cultural diversification, and technological advancements. This conference aims to dissect and discuss these transformations, providing a platform for scholars, researchers, and practitioners to share insights, exchange ideas, and collaboratively unravel the complex fabric of family structures in the 21st century.

Join us at the Ismail National Mahila PG College for this intellectually stimulating and socially relevant conference. Together, let's gain fresh insights, challenge existing paradigms, and pave the way for a deeper understanding of family, marriage, and kinship in the 21st century.
