Sociology (PG)

Programme Outcome- This Courses for study in sociology have been redesigned with a view to develop skills among students to understand different types of societies and groups by acquiring knowledge of theories, concepts and methods of research. The students will be encouraged to discuss possibilities of applying their knowledge to a variety of situations and undertaking exercises of their own.

Programme Specific Outcome- It develop research orientation in the students. Students will able to understand, analyse and solve the puzzle of day to day life. These ideas will help students learn and grasp the fundamental principles of sociology in a more conceptual way. This course will help students expand their vocabulary and develop a scientific mind-set. The course is meant to cover all of the fundamental topics in sociology, allowing students to gain strong insights into the differences between common sense and sociological knowledge.

Course Outcome-

Co V Basic Statistics & Computer Application in Social Research- it will enhance the knowledge about basic statistics and computer application. It is useful for future in their life.

Co VI Neo-Classical Theories- this paper is bridge between classical and new development in the field of sociology.

Co VII Social Change: Concept and Theories- Social change is a natural phenomenon. This paper creates knowledge of its meaning and typology about the social change. It creates the observation capacity towards students.

Co VIII Explanation in Social Science- This paper is about to analyse social fact and its interaction with other discipline. It is creating interdisciplinary view among the students.

Co IX Modern Sociological Theories- To enhance the knowledge about current understanding of Sociological Theories.

Co X Social Change in India- To inculcate changing dimension of our society.

Co XI Social Problems in India- to enable students about the major problems in Indian society.

Co XII Viva- Voce- to enhance their capacity to represent their understanding related to subject.

CoXIII Classification in Sociology- To create capacity to classify and understand difference between the streams of Subject.

Co XIV Perspectives on Indian Society- understanding regarding the nature of Indian society, social environment, social movements and political sociology.

Course XIV Perspectives on Indian Society

1. Society in India
2. Sociology of Environment
3. Sociology of Social Movements
4. Political Sociology
5. Dissertation*