“AIDS Awareness program on AIDS Day:

Theme: World Aids Day 2021 “End inequalities. End AIDS. End Pandemics”.

Organized by: Mrs. Meenu Sharma (program officer NSS Unit-3)

Objectives:

- ❖ Aims at making people aware of the causes, treatment, and prevention of Aids.
- ❖ Spread awareness among people who are not receiving essential HIV services.
- ❖ Special focus on reaching people left behind

On 1st December 2021, on the occasion of “World Aids “Day” an Aids awareness program” was conducted by NSS unit-3 of Ismail national Mahila PG college, Meerut. The program was organized by Mrs. Meenu Sharma, under the valuable guidance of respected Principal Dr. Anita Rathi. The program is aimed at making people aware of the causes, treatment, and prevention of Aids. The program was based on World Aids Day 2021 theme “End inequalities. End AIDS. End Pandemics” which focuses on the increasing inequalities & inequities in access to the healthcare services for HIV due to Covid-19. on this occasion, all the NSS volunteers wore red ribbons. The red ribbon is an internationally recognized symbol for AIDS awareness, worn by people throughout the year in support of people living with HIV and in remembrance of those who have died. Volunteers also pinned the red ribbon to Principal mam, faculty members, staff members, and other students to commemorate World AIDS Day. Wearing a red ribbon is a simple and powerful way to challenge the stigma and prejudice surrounding AIDS. Volunteers have painted their hands with Aids Prevention slogans like “No Aids”, “Love Life”, “Stop Aids”. The NSS unit- 03 also organized a peaceful awareness rally on the theme of “AIDS Prevention”. Colorful and meaningful posters were made and carried along with by the volunteers during the rally. The rally was flaged off by principal, Dr.Anita Rathi. More than 50 volunteers attended/participated in the rally along with NSS program officer. The rally started from the college and was continued in the city and ended back to college. The object of the NSS rally was to create awareness on AIDS prevention and to awaken and instill a sense of responsibility and moral duties among the public. The student volunteers throughout the rally were enthusiastically shouting slogans on awareness like “Jo Suraksha se naata todega wo ek din duniya chodega” Vishwa aids divas manayenge iske prati alakh jagayenge”.After that an “Aids Awareness Quiz” was also organized in the college,in which 55 volunteers have participated. Mrs Meenu Sharma has asked questions to volunteers. In this quiz, Sonika Chauhan, Hina Rajput, Vanshika secured first, second, third place respectively.In the next section of the awareness program, Dr. Tungveer Singh Arya, professor of Medicine and Nodal officer of AIDS Control Program (ARTC) Lala Lajpat rai memorial Medical college, Meerut delivered an informative lecture to the students on Aids prevention. Dr. Arya is associated with aids prevention awareness under the aegis of UP State AIDS Control Society (UPSACS), Lucknow for the care and management of Persons Living with HIV/AIDS (PLHAs) in Meerut and adjoining districts. Dr. Arya made all volunteers pledge to be alert for AIDS prevention and spread awareness among people for the same. 100 NSS volunteers have participated in different sections of this awareness program.

“Human Rights Day Celebration”

Theme: Human Rights Day 2021 “Equality, Reducing inequalities, advancing human rights.”

Organized by: Mrs. Meenu Sharma (program officer NSS Unit-3)

Objectives:

- ❖ To make the Volunteers aware of a broad range of fundamental rights and freedoms to which all of us are entitled.
- ❖ To read the Universal Declaration of Human Rights which empowers us all. The principles enshrined in the Declaration empower us to stand up for our own rights and those of others.
- ❖ We can take action in our own daily lives, to uphold the rights that protect us all and thereby promote the kinship of all human beings.
- ❖ To empowered volunteers to prevent inequality, abuses, and discrimination, protect the most vulnerable.
- ❖ To promote “Mission Shakti”, an initiative by Uttar Pradesh Government for women empowerment.

Activities:

- Rangoli with effective messages of Women Empowerment.
- Reading the Universal Declaration of Human Rights empowers us all.
- Guest lecture by Dr. Anubhuti Chauhan.
- Q& A by students about women empowering laws in India.

Event Report:

On 10th December 2021, NSS unit-3 of Ismail National Mahila PG college, Meerut has conducted one day camp on the college premises. This camp was dedicated to Human Rights Day. The theme for year 2021 was 'Reducing inequalities and advancing human rights'. Many volunteers participated enthusiastically in the Program. The activity was organised by the NSS Program Officer of NSs Unit-3 under the overall supervision and guidance of Honorable Principal Dr. Anita Rathi. Human Rights Day is observed every year on 10 December. It commemorates the day on which, in 1948, the United Nations General Assembly adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. In 1950, the Assembly passed resolution 423 (V), inviting all States and interested organizations to observe 10 December of each year as Human Rights Day. In this program, volunteers were gathered in "Ramlal Hall" of the college. The program was especially focused on Mission shakti, an initiative taken by Uttar Pradesh Government to empower women. On this occasion, volunteers also made rangoli which spread messages of "gender Sensitization" like All human beings are born free and equal in dignity" "Strength has no gender" "women are the real architects of society" and "Right to Education For women". The aim of this rangoli art is to sensitize and educate not only the NSS volunteers but other students about the importance of human rights and the need to protect and promote them. In another part of the program, a Guest lecture was organized. The Program began with all present in the auditorium taking the Human Rights Pledge. Dr. Anubhuti Chauhan, founder and president of "Arunodaya Society" has delivered a lecture on "challenges for women Rights in Contemporary Time". Dr. Chauhan is the general secretary of World women awakening organization, member of Women harrasment pvvnl uppcl western Up and president of Aseem naari shakti. Dr.chauhan has focused on key laws of women's rights in India and aware students about them. She also answered several questions related to Human rights posed by volunteers. In the end, Dr. Anita Rathi motivates volunteers for being empowered and aware of other women for their rights.
