

Best Practice- I

1. Title of the Practice

'Empowering young Women through Entrepreneurial and Employability skill Development'

2. Objectives of the Practice

- To motivate students to take up self-employment or entrepreneurship as one of their career options
- To earn while learn
- To Improve the intellect and employment skill of students & boost their performance through innovative methods of teaching and learning
- To understand the procedure involved in setting up a small enterprise
- To develop and strengthen the entrepreneurial traits

3. The Context

Skill development not only creates employment opportunities but also empowers the students. Such skill development activities are conducted for students regularly in the college to instill the required skills and abilities in order to shape up their overall personality.

4. The Practice

Associations/cells/clubs of college are entrusted with the responsibility of conducting training programmes which include Certificate course, workshops, demonstrations, hands on training, competitions, awareness lectures for enhancing employability skills. IQAC oversees the plan of action's execution.

IN College gives an opportunity to the budding entrepreneurs to display their creative and innovative products in their stalls. The students learn the skill of marketing their products with high competition and adopting innovative business strategies. Students exhibit their creativity in arts, crafts, and food.

5. Evidence of Success

- The innovation club organized a training programme of preparing eco-friendly bags by using old jeans pants or T-shirts & waste paper etc.
- Quiz competition was conducted regularly to improve general knowledge.
- Food Fest organized by the Home Science Department under the theme of ' Seva Pakhvada'
- Cultural committee organized Inter-department Folk songs & dance competition
- Honourable Vice Chancellor Prof. Sangeeta Shukla C. C. S. University, Meerut confers a Cash Award of Rs. Five thousand to Ms. Ariba and other students of I N College as an "Encouragement Award" in recognition of their innovative idea in the startup proposal under Start-up Cell and Incubation Centre (SCIC) titled "Paper Bouquet."
- A large number of students actively and enthusiastically participated in the event which included such items as surgical mask and cloth masks.

- A College student got an opportunity to present Newspaper bags in front of our Honorable Governor “Anandi ben Patel”. One student Ishika of I N college went to Governor house to present the bags in front of 13 countries Ambassador and Governor.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

- Class work may have to be compromised due to skill development programmes.
- The nominal registration fee charged for the Certificate courses is an additional expense.
- Not getting full support from parents due to being from rural areas.
- It is necessary for mentors to support aspiring students who are starting their own businesses throughout the incubation phase.

Mask Making Competition

Objectives of the Practice

- (1) To develop academic and professional skills among students of INM PG College, Meerut.
- (2) To develop among students the professional Zeal, industrial work, culture, time management skills.
- (3) To encourage the students for their self-employment and to make them "AATAMNIRBHAR".

Skill development ('Waste se best' Flower waste Organic dhoopbati)

Objectives of the Practice

Protection of the environment from organic incense.
Making students self reliant
Reduce flower waste
Create new opportunities in business sector

(Making the best out of waste 'kabaad se Jugaad')

|-----------------------------------|--|
| Objectives of the Practice | To develop the ability to think and organize the thinking to create something useful. To explore the environmental concepts and actions which are beyond the curriculum & syllabus. To make our vision and outlook boarder about the nature & society. |
|-----------------------------------|--|

Best Practice- II

1. Title of the Practice

‘Fostering Social Responsibility – Community Awareness Programme ‘

2. Objectives of the Practice

- Active participation with emotion and benevolence for society and people.
- To set up example of help and kindness among students.
- Urging to connect college curriculum with social realities.
- To create awareness among the people and educate them about health, nutrition, and hygiene so as to enable them to lead a better quality of life.
- To involve students in eradicating social problems.
- To inspire students to believe in being there for and with others.

3. The Context

Creating awareness is the prime intention of this practice College is always initiating and promoting the community services. This type of promotion and campaign in the area leads a good presence and participation in support to poor mental, social & economic condition of the people.

4. The Practice

It is important for college students to realize that, education is not just about sitting in four walls. They need to be aware of the social condition and the environment. Our college is always striving for this. Different activities for community awareness as - CLEAN India, Swach Bharath” Awareness Camp, Seminar on “Tobacco” Education to under-privileged children, road safety awareness, mental health etc. are undertaken by college cell & committees of the Institute.

5. Evidence of Success

The aforementioned programs seemed to have increased the pupils' sensitivity, and they actively participated in other social activities that the school held. Positive community response regarding the programs is concrete proof of the practice's efficacy.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

As a result, there aren't any significant issues with applying this method. There was no need for extra resources, other from the meager financial assistance.

Short play

10/1/2023

On 10/01/2023 A short play was organized under the 'Road safety month' by National service scheme in leadership of program officer dr. Neha Singh. Through this, the students of the college made people aware of road safety through the play as precautions to be taken while walking on the road or while driving. Apart of this the principal Pro.Anita Rathi taught about traffic rules ,India is a country of colours, commotion and contrasts, and nowhere do we see all three more evidently than on its roads. On the one hand, you have the lively, often aggressive traffic of the bigger cities like Mumbai and Delhi, where the traffic is as restless as an underprepared marathon runner. On the other hand, you have the long and prosaic roads of the small towns and the villages, where you can enjoy a quiet, almost surreal drive through dramatic landscapes .During this program teachers of the college and member of road safety club Mahima thakur , Dr. Swarna were also present.
